CAMILLA HEARS IT THROUGH THE GRAPEVINE

Chapel Down near Tenterden welcomed a special visitor when the Duchess of Cornwall paid them a visit - and had a grape time. Camilla, who is President of the UK Vineyards Association, arrived by helicopter and was welcomed by CEO Frazer Thompson and the Mayor of Tenterden, Cllr Jennifer Crickmore-Porter. During her visit she picked grapes, witnessed the harvesting process and was presented with a special wine made in her honour - Cuvee Camilla. "It has been an incredible honour to welcome The Duchess of Cornwall to Chapel Down," says Mr Thompson. "Her Royal Highness' role as president of the UKVA demonstrates her genuine interest in English wines."
