

Boards to be taken down

Estate agents boards on land at the junction of Turners Avenue and Ashford Road, Tenterden, are to be removed.

Town councillors were told on Monday that Kent County Council highways and enforcement officers had contacted the companies asking them to take down the boards, which they had agreed to do.

Cllr Sue Ferguson had previously complained that the boards, advertising houses which have been sold, were an eyesore.