Extras' special way to show town some love

It was a case of lights, camera, action when photos were taken for the new Love Tenterden loyalty card brochure.

The town's chamber of commerce put out a call for extras to be snapped in High Street by photographer Lewis Brockway, aided by his wife, Rita, wielding a flashlight on a pole.

A chamber spokesman said: "We felt that as the card was all about shopping, we needed to see some shoppers on the brochure. It was 'lights', then 'action' and 'everyone walk' – great fun. We went round lots of shops and everyone was so supportive, which is needed when about 12 people walk in with bags of cameras, lights and extras."

Shoppers will be able to buy the card for £1 and then be entitled to promotions and discounts offered by local businesses.

Companies and shops can sign up at www.tenterdentown.co.uk/join-card

There will be an official launch later.
